-The Philadelphians Playing a Spank-tag Came, and Will Hear Watching-Cleveland Enjoys a Picale at Home. The New Yorks' strong all-round exhibition at the Pole Grounds yesterday was very com-forting to their admirers, and belief is general that the team will now turn in and show some of their old-time efforts. The Brooklyns made a good start on their Boston trip, defeating the champions in a game played from end to end. The Philadelphians are now bearing a promi-nent part in the race, being a tie with Brooklyn and Pittsburgh for third place. Cleveland keeps up a winning pace when a chance is and now leads by a good margin. The results vesterday were: Bow York, 15; Washington, 1. Brooklyn, 5; Boston, 4.

Philadelphia, 10; Baltimore, 2, St. Louis, 5; Pittsburgh, 4, Cleveland, 21; Cincinnati, 4.

THE RECORD.

NEW YORK, 15; WASHINGTON, 1. NEW YORK, 15; WASHINGTON, 1.

Very meek and unassuming were the New York players as they left the dressing room for the diamond for yesterday's game. Ingeed they seemed absolutely crushed, Johnnie Ward in particular having nothing to say. That three straight in Boston was too much, and they apparently had no desire to look into the accusing eyes of their 1,500 odd friends, who evidently believe that while there's life there's hope.

who evidently believe that while there's hope.
Though crushed to earth the New Yorks will rise again. So the Washingtons found out, for with all that meekness there was something else noticeable in the demeanor of the home team. A baleful light shone from their eyes, as though they were desperately determined to have revenge ou the Senators for the defeats eustained at the bats of the philosophic Bostonians. This proved to be the case, as Meekin, whom the Washingtons put in to pitch, found.

as meekin, whom the washingtons put in to pitch, found.

Led by gallant Mike Tiernan, the home team lit onto "Meek's" curves thicker'n files on a drop of molasses. Michael is getting a reputation as a great home-body. Twice when he soaked the bail Mike never stopped running util he reached the welcome hearthstone. The hits were regular old-fashioned homers, and the crowd was delighted. One of them was made in the first inning to centre field, and the other was in the fourth to right. In the eighth inning Meekin was hit for four singles in succession. The Washington pitcher was poorly supported.

the eighth inning Meekin was hit for four singles in succession. The Washington pitcher was poorly supported.

Bo interested were the spectators in the Rew York' batting that they almost falled to actice Amos Russie's great work in the box. Amos was in splendld form, and all the visitors could get were three scattered hits. Theirone run was the result of a couple of bad errors by Ward. John redeemed himself later by making numerous assists, one, a stop and throw from back of second, being particularly brilliant. The score:

BROOKLIN. 5: BOSION, 4.

BOSION. May 18.—Capt. Foutz and his nobby sompany succeeded to-day in doing what the New Yorks found themselves unsule to do after trying three times, namely, defeat the Bosions. It was one of those clokely contested, hair-raising, nerve-destroying games. In which the spectators were in a delirium of delight one moment, and in the depths of despair the next. And the end was a fitting climax to the great contest—a Garrison finish, as it were. At the end of the seventh inning the score was atte. 2:0. 2. Neither side had done any batting to speak of. The Brooklyns had rapped out six singles, but they were so scattered that they had little to do with the runs scored in the first and fifth innings. Haddook had held the champions down to four hits, only two of which came togother.

That was the situation when the eighth inning opened. This was marked by terrific soughing on the part of the Brooklyns, who started in to show what they could do in that time. Burns's contribution was a terrific homer over the left fence. The Beaneaters were so surprised by the turn affairs had taken that they could do nothing with the stick in their half of the inning.

They thought that batting streak was only a speam of virtue on the part of the Brooklyns, but Griffin showed them a different phase of the Subject in the inink inning. Kinslow let McCarthy have a chance to make a grandstand catch, and then Haddook got his base on Nash's fumble. Griffin had already made two singles, but he showed his staying qualities by knocking the ball far over into the railroad yard, and Brooklyn's score was increased to a.

The Beaneaters had a high hill to climb, and they tackied it so courageously that they set the 1.200 cranks howling with joy and carried dismay to the hearts of their rivals, but the Bostons could not get enough runs to win. The score:

Max Judd. the newly appointed Consul-General to Vienna, was seen by a Sun reporter early yesterday morning on board the steam-ship Augusta Victoria prior to his departure for Europe. Consul Judd said:
"Yes, all the difficulties about my appointment have been smoothed over. One thing I wish to say, however, is that I never, never lenied my faith, and I never shall deny it." Turning to chess matters Judd said that he met Lasker at St. Louis. They played two games of skittles, which were finished within games of skittles, which were finished within less than twenty minutes. Lasker won both games. In reply to a question by the reporter, Judd said that Lasker is considered by the Western chess men to be one of the strongest players in the world, yet it is doubtful whether he will be able to get from them the desired backing to play Steinitz. As to the outcome of the proposed match, Judd appeared to be confident that Steinitz would win.

"I am glad to learn that the Columbian Congress is assured," he continued. "No, I shall not participate in it, because I will be too busy." The reporter introduced Walbredt to Judd.
The latter shock Walbredt's hand very cordialiv, and said: "I am very glad to meet you.
How young you are, and so fine a chess player!
Walbredt is also a passenger on the Augusta during the voyage may be expected.

Mahoney sent word to New Orienn accepting the offer, adding that he would await the articles of agreement and that McAuliffe would sent them as soon as heartived in New York, which would probably be on Sonday or Monday next.

The promise of brilliant sport brought fully 6,500 persons to Gravesend yesterday after neon, the Control Stakes for two-year-olds and the Falcon Stakes for three-year-elds, being the features of the excellent programme arranged by Secretary McIntyra. The former was won by Richard Croker's Dobbins, a warm favorite, while W. M. Barrick's Emin Bey carried off the honors in the three-year-old race. Seldom has such a pronounced favorite as Dobbins gone to the post for a stake in the early spring, but the public would have nothing but Thora's son after his runaway victory on Tuesday and eagerly played him at odds on to beat the eleven youngsters that were opposing him. Dobt ins outlooked his field, but it does not follow that the other starters were not up to the standard; on the contrary, they were a remarkably handsome lot. The Messra Keene started their colt Bowers, a brother to Tyrant, the horse that won both the Withers and the Belmont some years ago at Jerome Park. Bowers and Dobbins were both sold at the Ehret sale last fall, and at that time Trainer Mait Allen said the former could run very fast, but that in his estimation Dobbins would prove the greater race horse. Mr. Croker's colt has more length and fully as much substance as Bowers, and as he came from behind the son of Tyrant in the stretch yesterday he will probably hold him safe this year at even weights. The Uneck Stable sent two well-named sons of Tyrant to the post in Despot and The Bully, so that Mr. Haggin's young horse is making a name for himself in the stud. Nathan Straus started Sir Excess, a handsome son of Sir Modred and Dixianne, and Messrs. Boyle & Littlefield were represented by that clinking geding Halton, a winner at his first essay. J. G. Folansbee named Springtime, and William O'Brien Macdonough's colors were borne for the first time in the East by Milan. a sister to Sir Watter. The Messrs. Morris pinned their faith to Prig, a sulendid-looking son of Galore, while the Sheffield Stable started Montepool, a rapidgoing son of Spendthrift and Enquiress, Longdale, a winner at Elizabeth, carried Col. Ruppert's colors, and the Fleischmans were content with Professor S. by Miser, out of Caretaker. Croker's colt has more length and fully as content with Professor B. by Miser, out of Caretaker.

After some skirmishing at the post, Mr. Rowe got upon the ground and, driving the youngsters back, forced them to get in line. Despot and Bowers were the quickest to get to running, but they were joined at the turn by Sir Excess, while Doblins headed the ruck, Halton being one of the last to get away. Around the upper turn Despot and Bowers ran head and head, but when well into the homestretch Lambley, who was unhampered by orders, moved up very rapidly on the outside with Dobbins, and a furlong from home had the favorite's head in front. Overton had in the mean time threaded his way through the field with Halton, and the gelding overhauled his horses as Lamplighter did his in the Handicap on Monday. Tarai punched Bowers vigorously, but third was the best he could do at the finish. Dobbins winning by a length, while Halton heaf Bowers a head for second money. Mr. Croker, who saw the race from the stewards stand, was warmly congratulated upon his colif's victory. Dobbins is certainly a good colt, but he must beat Halton again before a number of the talent will be satisfied that he is entitled to first place in the two-year-old ranks. The race was worth $4.000 to the winner, $750 to second, and $250 to third.

TERRIBLY INCREASING.

to Authorities of the Board of Monith Give Some Important Information About the Present Condition of the People. At no time in the history of New York city have there been so many deaths from pneu-monia as now. The official figures show that nearly twice as many deaths from this cause are occurring than for the last five years. This is something terrible.

The authorities of the Board of Health say The authorities of the Board of Health say that this increase is due to the influence of grip. They say that grip may be called epidemic just now, and that in the majority of cases grip is a vital contributing cause to pneumonia and all dangerous pulmonary troubles. At this season of the year, when we are changing over from winter to spring, there is always a low order of vitality, a renction from the strains of the season. The blood does not flow so full nor rapidly; the strength is less. For this reason grip has a much tester chance than at any other season. This is the time of year when people need to be careful, and too much imperiance cannot be placed upon keeping the blood warm and in circulation. You must bring about a reaction if you wish to avoid the pain and dangers of these troubles in time. There is but one way by which a reaction can be brought about, and that is by the use of a pure stimulant, preferably whiskey. But the great difficulty is that there are few whiskeys which are pure. The only really pure and reliable whiskey known to the medical profession or the world is Duffy's Pure Malt. It rossesses qualities known only to itself. It will bring about a reaction and pravent cold, pneumonia, or the grip, where many so-called stimulants would fail. It has saved more lives and relieved more suffering than anything of a similar nature which was ever before known to the world.—Adv. that this increase is due to the influence o

TROITING AT POINT BREEZE

Judge Fisher Scarce His Backers and Then Wins the 2:94 Class Purse. PHILADELPHIA. May 18.-Another disagreeable day frowned on the harness meeting at Point Breeze, reducing attendance and taking much of the spirit out of the afternoon's sport. The good mare Nellie S. polished off the field in the postponed 2:20 race. Judge Fisher out up wild as a bawk in the early part of the 2:24 event, causing alarm to those who had played him at odds of 5 to 4 against the field. But him at odds of 5 to 4 against the field. But the hand-ome five-year-old seemed to have the speed of the wind, and in spite of many breaks he lost but a single heat.

The 2:33 race was long drawn out, but it was by no means a great contest. The poorly conditioned winners of the earlier heats with-ored as the race wore on. Montague slone staying it out in sturdy style to the end. R. W. H. was favorite in the betting. Summaries:
